

Home from Home

AP

The scene depicts one of the famous original Fiat 500, cinquecento, motorcars sat in an ancient Italian paved street. The reason for the title, 'Home from Home' is due to the fact that the cars registration is British and it is right hand drive, yet it has made its way back out to its birth place; a holiday perhaps?
It is equally poignant that only a car of this diminutive size could fit down such a street!